HANDLING OF CONTAINERS AT CONTAINER TERMINALS

1. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The services rendered by the Terminal Operator to the Customer or Container Operator are governed by this Tariff Book, read in conjunction with the Terminal Operator's Conditions of Trade ("COT") for Container Terminals and the COT Appendices thereto and the Standard Operating Procedures for the Container Terminals ("SOPCT") and the SOPCT Appendices thereto (a copy of which are available on request and on the Terminal Operator's website: www.transnet-tpt.net) which constitute the entire agreement between the parties to any aspect, matter or thing referred to herein or which arises out of or relates to such matters as are referred to, and shall be the sole and exclusive memorial thereof.

Container Terminal

An area especially set aside primarily for the handling of containers by specialised equipment in the following container terminals:

- Durban (Pier 1 and Pier 2)
- Ngqura
- Port Elizabeth
- Cape Town

Container

Any container, reefer container, controlled atmosphere container, integral reefer container, transportable tank or flat rack container that conforms to the International Standards Organisation standard container type designations. Containers not complying with this standard will be handled at the discretion of the Terminal Operator.

Empty Container

Any container, reefer container, controlled atmosphere container, integral reefer container, transportable tank or flat rack container that conforms to the International Standards Organisation standard container type designations that is free of cargo (empty in content). In the case of transportable tanks which have previously contained hazardous cargo, these will only be considered empty if a gas-free certificate is presented in respect of such container.

Abnormal/Out of Gauge Containers

Any container in or on which there is cargo, the dimensions of which cargo exceed any of the external dimensions of the container in or on which such cargo is carried, or any container which, whether by reason of damage thereto, or its design, size, mass or any other reason, cannot be handled by means of the standard container handling equipment employed by the Terminal Operator for the handling of containers, from time to time. The Terminal Operator may, in its sole discretion, refuse to handle such abnormal/out of gauge containers and, should the Terminal Operator handle such containers, it does so without accepting or incurring any liability to any party for any loss of or damage to such container, any cargo in or on such container, or any other property whatsoever.

SECTION 1

Reefer Containers

Any reefer containers, including reefer clip-on units, heated tanks and fantainers, that move via the reefer area and require power connection.

IMDG – (International Maritime Dangerous Goods) Containers

Any cargo/residue defined as dangerous/hazardous under the IMDG (International Maritime Dangerous Goods) Code and/or SANS (South African National Standard) 10228.

Transshipment Containers

Any container in respect of which both landing and shipping movements occur at the same container terminal. Without exception only those identified as transshipment containers in the ICL or EDI submitted in respect of such containers prior to their handling, will qualify and be charged as transshipment containers. Any subsequent change in the transshipment status will result in the container being treated as a normal import container from the time of landing, for billing purposes. Where either the landing or shipment takes place at any other terminal within the Port, the container so landed or shipped will not be regarded as a transshipment container.

Container Sizes

HANDLING OF CONTAINERS AT RO-RO, BREAKBULK AND AGRICULTURAL TERMINALS

1. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The services rendered by the Terminal Operator to the Customer are governed by this Tariff Book, read in conjunction with the Terminal Operator's Standard Terms and Conditions for the Ro-Ro, Breakbulk and Agricultural Terminals (a copy of which are available on request and on the Terminal Operator's website: www.transnet-tpt.net) which constitute the entire agreement between any parties in regard to such matters as are referred to, and shall be the sole and exclusive memorial thereof.

Ro-Ro, Breakbulk and Agricultural Terminal

An area especially set aside primarily for the handling of general breakbulk cargo, bulk cargo, containers and vehicles by standard port equipment at the following Ro-Ro, Breakbulk and Agricultural Terminals:

- | | |
|----------------|------------------|
| ■ Richards Bay | ■ Port Elizabeth |
| ■ Durban | ■ Cape Town |
| ■ Maydon Wharf | ■ Saldanha |
| ■ East London | |

Container

Any container, reefer container, controlled atmosphere container, integral reefer container, transportable tank or flat rack container that conforms to the International Standards Organisation standard container type designations. Containers not complying with this standard will be handled at the discretion of the Ro-Ro, Breakbulk and Agricultural Terminals.

Empty Container

Any container, reefer container, controlled atmosphere container, integral reefer container, transportable tank or flat rack container that conforms to the International Standards Organisation standard container type designations that is free of cargo (empty in content). In the case of transportable tanks which have previously contained hazardous cargo, these will only be considered empty if a gas-free certificate is presented in respect of such container.

Abnormal/Out of Gauge Containers

Any container in or on which there is cargo, the dimensions of which cargo exceed any of the external dimensions of the container in or on which such cargo is carried, or any container which, whether by reason of damage thereto, or its design, size, mass or any other reason, cannot be handled by means of the standard container handling equipment employed by the Terminal Operator for the handling of containers, from time to time. The Terminal Operator may, in its sole discretion, refuse to handle such abnormal/out of gauge containers and, should the Terminal Operator handle such containers, it does so without accepting or incurring any liability to any party for any loss of or damage to such container, any cargo in or on such container, or any other property whatsoever.

Reefer Containers

Any reefer containers, including reefer clip-on units, heated tanks and fantainers, that move via the reefer area and require power connections.

SECTION 2

IMDG – (International Maritime Dangerous Goods) Containers

Any cargo/residue defined as dangerous/hazardous under the IMDG (International Maritime Dangerous Goods) Code and/or SANS (South African National Standard) 10228.

Transshipment Containers

Any container in respect of which both landing and shipping movements occur at the same terminal. Without exception only those identified as transshipment containers in the ICL or EDI submitted in respect of such containers prior to their handling, will qualify and be charged as transshipment containers. Any subsequent change in the transshipment status will result in the container being treated as a normal import container from the time of landing, for billing purposes. Where either the landing or shipment takes place at any other terminal within the Port, the container so landed or shipped will not be regarded as a transshipment container.

Container Sizes

Size		L(mm)	X	W(mm)	X	H(mm)	Max mass

20'	6m	6 058	X	2 438	X	2 591	30 480 kg

The maximum mass reflected is conditional on the container being plate rated to carry that mass.

High Cube Containers

The above dimensions but with a height of 2 896mm.

Direct Restow

The movement of a container by means of a Terminal Operator's crane from a position on a vessel to another position on the same vessel, without the container being temporarily placed on the quay or elsewhere on the vessel.

Indirect Restow

The movement of a container from a position on a vessel to another position on the same vessel by means of a crane, with the container being temporarily placed on the quay or elsewhere on the vessel before it is finally placed in the same, or in another position.

Early Arrival Containers

A container that arrives in the terminal before the stack into which it is to be taken has been opened. The acceptance of early arrival containers is at the discretion of the Terminal Operator and additional charges will be raised in respect of early arrival containers.

Late Arrival Containers

A container that arrives in the terminal after the stack into which it is to be taken up has been closed. The acceptance of late arrival containers is at the discretion of the Terminal Operator and additional charges will be raised in respect of late arrival containers.

SECTION 2

Ro-Ro Vessel

A vessel which has certain cargo decks accessible only by means of a ramp which is lowered onto the quayside and over which cargo is driven on board or off the vessel by means of the ramp.

Fully Cellular Vessel

A vessel which is purpose built for the transportation of ISO standard containers stacked on top of each other in vertical guide shafts into and from which containers are loaded or discharged, where no general freight is carried.

Non-Cellular Vessel

A vessel which is not purpose built to carry only ISO standard containers and which may carry non-containerised cargo. Not all hatches into which containerised cargo will be loaded or discharged on this vessel will have vertical guide shafts although there may be some hatches which do.

The onus remains on the Customer or Container Operator to ensure that the container and cargo is released by Customs authorities before delivery is effected, unless released in bond to a depot licensed by Customs authorities. Further, the onus remains on the Customer or Container Operator to ensure that such delivery in bond is executed by a South African Revenue Services licensed transporter in terms of the Customs Act to transport such container and cargo in bond.

Import Containers which have not been customs cleared (including consignments which have been stopped by any Government Department) or for which cargo dues orders have not been presented to the carrier, may be kept at the terminal until disposal instructions have been received. The period for which such containers will be kept in a terminal will be at the sole discretion of the Terminal Operator, and all containers remaining in the terminal after the expiry of the free storage period, shall incur storage charges at the applicable rate, regardless of the reason why such containers remain in the terminal.

Should the Customer or Container Operator fail to provide delivery instructions in respect of import containers within 72 hours after completion of discharge of a vessel, the Terminal Operator may arrange for the removal and storage of such containers, in bond, to a South African Revenue Services licensed Container Depot (if applicable) or to any recognised Container Depot, and such removal and storage of such containers shall be entirely at the risk and expense of the Customer or Container Operator, and the Terminal Operator shall incur no liability whatsoever in respect of any loss or damage suffered by the Customer or Container Operator or any third party which may arise from or in connection with such removal and/or storage of such containers.
